

Lafayette Library and Learning Center Foundation

Glenn Seaborg Learning Consortium

The Lafayette Library and Learning Center is home to the Glenn Seaborg Learning Consortium (GSLC). The Consortium is comprised of 12 educational, arts, and cultural organizations with the shared goal to enlighten, inspire and encourage visitors of all ages to learn more about science, the arts, politics, history, our environment and health.

Named for Dr. Glenn Seaborg, a Nobel Prize winner and 45-year resident of Lafayette. Dr. Seaborg was also a beloved teacher, Chancellor of the University of California, Chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, Director of the Lawrence Berkeley Laboratories, and an outspoken member of the President's National commission on Excellence in education.
